1. What is this product about?
Bank Guarantee-i is a guarantee letter issued by HSBC Amanah Malaysia Berhad (subject always to the Bank Guarantee-i facility limit granted by the Bank) on behalf of our customer to a third party as a guarantor undertaking to pay an agreed sum if the customer fails or defaults in fulfilling their contractual obligations that arises from Shariah Compliant contract or activities under the terms and conditions of the guarantee. For urgent issuance of Bank Guarantee-i and/or where customers do not have a Bank Guarantee facility yet, GuaranteeSmart-i is an alternative option where a Bank Guarantee-i may be issued subject to 100% cash margin in the currency of the Bank Guarantee-i. The cash margin (also known as Margin Payments) are advanced payments by the customer for issuance of the Bank Guarantee-i and upon transfer of the margin payments to the Bank, all rights, title and interest in and to any Margin Payments shall vest in the Bank free and clear of any liens, claims, charges or encumbrances. Tender Bid Bond This guarantee is applied for by our customer (bidder) to support their tenders for contracts from potential buyers. The buyer is afforded a financial remedy if the tender is withdrawn by the bidder or the successful bidder fails to enter into a contract, or does not provide subsequent bond, such as a Performance Guarantee, to support the contract. The purpose is to substantiate the financial standing of the bidder. Performance Bond This guarantee replaces the Tender Bid Bond if the tender is accepted. Performance Bond is an undertaking on behalf of our customer (principal), to pay cash if the obligations of the principal under the contract are not discharged. The amount of such bonds is usually based on a percentage of the value of the contract and is significantly greater than that of the related Tender Bid Bond. Advance Payment Guarantee This guarantee is an undertaking to pay, on behalf of our customer (principal), the sum paid in advance under the contract by the contracting party (beneficiary) for obligations that have not yet been performed. Contracts sometimes include provisions, which allow principals to receive advance payments from beneficiaries for purposes such as mobilising plant and equipment or purchase of raw materials. The terms of such contracts normally provide that such sums advanced must be paid from (set-off against) progress payments under the contract. The beneficiary can recover the amount paid or a part thereof under the Advance Payment Guarantee if the principal fails to fulfil their underlying contractual obligations. Retention Bond Contracts may allow the contracting party (beneficiary) to retain a proportion of the contract sum until substantial completion of the contract has taken place, such as remedial works during warranty period. The beneficiary may be prepared to release this retention money to the principal against the presentation of this guarantee. Financial Guarantee A common type of guarantee issued to provide our customers with the means of obtaining facilities from the beneficiaries of the guarantees, who may, if the need arises, claim under such guarantees up to a maximum amount and within a set period of time. For example; rent payments under a lease agreement, payment for utilities, court fees, etc.

Other Guarantees

This includes types of guarantees other than the ones mentioned above. Examples are Service Deposits, Supply Contracts, Security Deposits etc.

2. What is the Shariah concept applicable?

Bank Guarantee-i is provided under the Shariah principle of Kafalah (Guarantee). Under Kafalah (Guarantee), the Bank becomes the guarantor of the Customer's performance of its obligations that arises from a Shariah Compliant contract or activities, through issuance of the Bank Guarantee-i in favour of the beneficiary. In the event of the Customer's non-performance, the Bank will pay the beneficiary upon presentation of its claim in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Bank Guarantee-i. Fees and commission are charged for issuance of the Bank Guarantee-i.

The subject matter of Bank Guarantee-i shall not be any obligation arising from Shariah non-compliant contracts or activities.

3. What do I get from this product?
